While through the ice the crimson berries glow;
The thick spring reeds, which watery marshes yield,
Seem polished lances in a hostile field.

O'er all his boundless realms beneath the sky,
 From parched Angola to the cheerless poles,
 The partial sun now wields an equal sway,
 And shares an equal empire with the night.

And all the gaudy leaves are strown;
The leaves look barren, thin and cold,
Beneath the darkening tempest's frown.

 With hazy vapors floating o'er the ground,
 A faintish light is seen by southern swains,
 Called Will-O-Wisp, dancing from side to side.

A LIST OF THE GOVERNORS AND COM- MANDERS-IN-CHIEF

OF NEW-HAMPSHIRE, FROM ITS FIRST SETTLEMENT.

[New-Hampshire was first settled in 1628, by Edward and William Hilton, brothers, from London, and David Thompson, from Scotland. During the first 18 years after the settlement, the people in the several Plantations were governed by Agents appointed by the Proprietors, or by magistrates chosen by themselves. In 1641, they became united to Massachusetts, and so continued until 1680, when New-Hampshire became a Royal Province ; and, excepting an interregnum from 1689 to 1692, when the people again put themselves under the protection of Massachusetts, continued a provincial government until the Revolution. Massachusetts was made a Province in 1692, and the same Governor was over that and New-Hampshire, from 1699 till 1741, when a separate governor of New-Hampshire was appointed, and all connection with Massachusetts ceased.]

The House of Representatives consisted of 239 members. The Legislature were in session from June 1 to June 24, 1842, and passed 20 acts, 30 resolutions, and an address. They then adjourned to meet again on the first Wednesday of November. Little important business was transacted during the session. The Commissioners appointed to revise the laws of the State having reported, and an adjourned session for the consideration of that report having been decided on, every measure of general interest almost was postponed, to be taken and acted upon in connection with the Revised Statutes in November.

William Fisk, Concord, Keeper of the State House.

Emery Burgess, Concord, Doorkeeper to the Council.

 Senators and Representatives receive $2,00 per day for attendance during the session of the Legislature; Counsellors $2,00 per day, whenever they may be in session; and ten cents per mile for travel. The President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and the Clerks of both Houses, receive $2,50 per day.

The Asylum is located on an elevation about half a mile south-westerly of the State House, in Concord, and is constructed and finished, upon a plan highly creditable to the State. It is of excellent brick, upon a superstructure of granite, having a centre building 48 by 44 feet, 4 stories in height above the basement, and 2 wings, each 90 by 36 feet, 3 stories above the basement—the whole constituting a continuous and elegant pile 228 feet in length. The centre building is designed for the occupation of the superintendant's family, and for dining rooms for the patients, while the wings contain 120 rooms for the accommodation of that number of unfortunate insane. The basement, constructed externally of granite, is divided into numerous large and commodious apartments, affording the most ample and convenient accommodations for cookery and storage, and the whole edifice throughout is warmed from furnaces constructed in it. The roofs are well slated. The exterior building is already completed, and the institution nearly ready for the reception of patients. About 120 acres of land have been purchased for the use of the Asylum, upon which a neat and commodious barn, 42 by 60 feet, with 18 feet posts, and a cellar under the whole, has been constructed. The amount expended to June 1842, including the purchase of land and the erection of buildings, was $23,092,23. Additional amount then estimated to be necessary to put the Asylum into successful operation $14,462. Of this sum, there were funds on hand and expected to be realized therefrom $6,776,06, leaving to be supplied from other sources, $7,685,94, of which the Legislature granted $4,000, leaving $3,685,94 to be provided hereafter. Whole actual and estimated expense of the establishment $37,554,23.

Physician, EZRA CARTER, M. D.

Number of convicts in confinement, October 12, 1842, 98—received during the year ending April 30, 1842, 20—discharged 12, of whom 9 were discharged by expiration of sentence, and 3 were pardoned by the executive—died, 0—under sentence for life, 12. Income of the prison from April 30, 1841, to April 30, 1842, $6,876,61, expenditures during the same period, $6,656,46, showing an excess of income over expenditures of $220,15 for the year. Good order and discipline prevail throughout the establishment; the prisoners, almost without exception, enjoy excellent health, and their moral condition is favorably represented. The appearance, both internal and external, of the prison and adjacent yards, has continued to improve within the past year. A portion of the convicts, 27 in number, are at present employed upon contract, at blacksmith work, and 23 are engaged at cabinet work. For each day's service of these prisoners, the contractors pay the State 40 cents. Of the remaining convicts, the greater part are engaged in shoe-making.

[The road has been located, and the route found to be highly favorable.]

THE NASHUA AND LOWELL RAILROAD extends from Nashua Village to Lowell, Mass., a distance of about 15 miles, being a prolongation of the Boston and Lowell Rail-road. It was opened to public use, Oct. 25, 1838. Up to April 30, 1842, the cost of the road had been $380,000; $164,070.46 in New Hampshire, and $215,929.54 in Massachusetts. Income of road during year ending April 30, 1842, $113,246,08, expenditures including $34,185 profits on hand, the same. Semi-annual dividends of 4 per cent have been made to stockholders.

It passes along the right side of the Merrimack, through the towns of Tyngsborough and Dunstable.

THE BOSTON AND MAINE RAILROAD commences at the line of the State, 3 1-2 miles from the village of Haverhill, Mass., and passes through the towns of Plaistow, Newtown, Kingston, East Kingston, Exeter, Durham, Madbury, Dover and Somersworth, to the line of Maine. 34 1-2 miles. From Wilmington, 14 1-2 miles from Boston, where it branches off from the Boston and Lowell Railroad, to the line of New Hampshire, at Haverhill, 33 1-2 miles from Boston, this road is known by the name of the Boston and Portland Railroad. From the line of New Hampshire it is expected to pass through the most important interior towns to Portland, and ultimately to Bangor, Me. It is already opened to Dover, the cars having commenced running from Dover to Boston on the 27th of September, 1841. Expenditures to Jan. 1, 1842, $471,331,32. Net income from July 1, 1841, to Jan. 1, 1842, $9,000.

THE EASTERN RAILROAD IN NEW HAMPSHIRE, extends from the line of Massachusetts, at Newburyport, through Seabrook, Hampton Falls, Hampton, North Hampton, Greenland, Rye and Portsmouth, to the line of Maine, about 20 miles. It was opened to public use in 1840, from Newburyport to Portsmouth, as well as from Salem to Newburyport. That portion between Boston and Salem was opened for travel in 1839. It passes from the northerly part of Boston, by the steam-ferry, to East Boston, and thence through Chelsea and Lynn, 14 miles, to Salem. It was originally designed to continue this road along the sea-board of Maine to Portland, and thence ultimately to Bangor, but we understand it is now proposed to pass from Portsmouth up the valley of the Piscataqua to Dover, and thence on the contemplated route of the Boston and Maine road. Expenditures to May 31, 1842, $437,466. Semi-annual dividends of 3 per cent. have been made to stockholders.

THE CONCORD RAILROAD extends from Nashua, up the valley of the Merrimack, 34 miles. to Concord. The work was completed through the entire distance, and the cars commenced running to Concord on the first of September, 1842. Estimated expense for the entire completion of the road, right of way, and necessary furniture, $700,000.

COMMON SCHOOLS IN N. H.

By the existing laws of New Hampshire, 100,000 dollars is annually assessed for the support of free schools, in addition to the annual distribution of about 10,000 dollars literary fund, and the sums raised by the several school districts for the building and repairing of school houses. Consequently, these schools are very numerous, and their blessings almost universally participated. According to the report of the United States' Marshal, the number of schools in the state in June, 1840, was 2,127, with 83,632 scholars; while, of the whole population of the state over twenty years of age, there were only 942 who could not read and write.

GEOLOGY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The geological and mineralogical survey of this State, authorized by the act of June 24, 1839, is still in progress under the superintendence of Dr. CHARLES T. JACKSON, State Geologist. The precise condition of the work at the present time, it is impossible to state. In a brief report made June 3, 1842, Dr. Jackson states it to be probable that his final report, accompanied by maps and drawings, may be made and printed previous to June, 1843; and gives assurance that "all the author can do, to make the report worthy of the State, and creditable to himself, will be done." The Legislature at their session in June, 1842, appropriated $3000 for a continuation of the survey, making $9000 already appropriated to this object.

STATE EXPENDITURES IN N. H.

The total expenditures on account of the State government from June 1, 1841, to June 1, 1842, were $96,323,03; to wit—Salaries of public officers $17,254,98, travel and attendance of Senate and House of Representatives June Session 1841, $19,321,30, appropriation for blind $550,00, for deaf and dumb $1183,33, for militia $1795,88, for bounties on wolves, bears, wild cats and foxes $2505,50, for geological survey $2820,11, for notes and interest on cash borrowed, paid $43,785,00, other incidental expenses $7106,93.

POLITICAL AND MUNICIPAL.

The whole number of votes polled for Governor in New Hampshire, on the second Tuesday of March 1842, was 48,104, of which Henry Hubbard (Dem.) received 26,831, Enos Stevens, (Whig) 12,362, John H. White, (Irreg. Dem.) 5,941, Daniel Hoyt, (Aboli.) 2,812, and there were 158 scattering votes. Hubbard's majority over all others 5,558.
